WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

“Do we need to fast for one hour before Mass, or one hour before communion?”

The practice of fasting before receiving the Eucharist is a centuries-old act of devotion that was once very different than it is today. In the 1917 Code of Canon Law, for example, anyone who wanted to receive the Eucharist had to fast from midnight until the time of communion. Over the following decades, the rules for the eucharist fast were relaxed. The current Law states very clearly: “A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before holy communion from any food and drink” (Canon 919). So, if we strictly follow the “letter of the law,” the fast is calculated from the time of communion, not the start of Mass. However, when we remember why we fast—it is a reminder of the deeper hungers of the spirit that your physical thirst or hunger symbolize—we see that the issue is much bigger than simply fulfilling what is called for by Church law and tradition. Joining fasting to our prayers and reflection before Mass is an opportunity to really center ourselves and to prepare our minds, hearts and bodies to welcome the One we receive in the Eucharist.
