• Father Deydier House of Discernment -Summer 2020

On August 19, the House will welcome four new residents, two from our own Corpus Christi parish: Jacob Greulich and Jacob Schneider, as well as Kienan Corcoran of Little Flower Parish in Indianapolis and Nick Folz of Good Shepherd.

Former House resident, Chase Riecker, was accepted for seminary for the Diocese of Evansville, and begins his freshman year at Bishop Bruté this fall.

Our Savio gatherings have evolved with the pandemic. A Holy Hour followed by a drive-in style outdoor movie was held in June, with nearly 60 young men in attendance. This past weekend, nearly 50 young men attended, "Sacrifice Saturday," which included 7am Mass, a 2-mile run around Reitz Hill and an outdoor breakfast.

The weekly Monday Night "Holy Hour & Mass for Vocations" at Sacred Heart reopened and attendance is steadily increasing. All are welcome for this time of prayer.

The Good Shepherd Knights of Columbus sponsored a promotional video showcasing the House of Discernment, and it was released this summer on YouTube. Search for "Evansville Vocations" channel and you'll find it.

Though the year has begun, the House still has space left and applications are currently being accepted. If you know a young man (age 18-30) who might benefit from a Catholic community of prayer and fraternity, while continuing his career or college, please contact Father Tyler.

Men who are discerning, benefit from this place! The House allows men to find where the Lord is calling and the freedom to go when the time is right, without the commitments of housing contracts and semester tuition.

Follow us on Facebook: "Father Deydier House of Discernment" to keep up with what's happening at the House.
