LIVE THE LITURGY

While families come in all shapes and sizes and no two are the same, they all need a common focus and grounding. Families are intended to be pivotal in providing us with a proper social structure and understanding, a support system, lessons about relationships and communication, and the unconditional acceptance and love we so desperately crave. In addition to all of these things, the axis of every family has to be centered on faith. It is here that we can learn about the virtues and discover the windows to God himself in His gifts of faith, hope and love. We can learn, modeling our experience after the Holy Family, how to use these as anchors in our lives so that we can live out the other virtues with greater integrity. Because our human families struggle with weakness and sin, we have to come back to the Holy Family often for inspiration and guidance. In the bond of love that they shared, they clung to the anchor of God Himself and endured challenges far greater than many we will ever face.

CORPUS CHRISTI CATHOLIC CHURCH

Dear Parish Family,

Merry Christmas! Just in case the holiday busy-ness might have crept in on your prayerful preparation, here is a little reminder of what today is about.

The Roman Empire was strong and spread widely through the known Mediterranean world. Jesus could have come as the son of noble birth, royal blood. He could have come as someone who had all the means one would need to communicate a message far and wide, effectively. But he chose to come as the son of a carpenter and a very young virgin. He chose to come as someone who was poor.

We often spend our time trying not to become poor. And I don't mean to say there aren't certain things that help show the dignity that we have as human beings. But we don't like to face poverty. At this time of year, though, poverty sometimes seems to find us.

I went to grab lunch with a friend of mine; this friend is a deacon and was wearing his clerics (black shirt and white collar) that day. We grabbed some fast food, sat down to eat inside the restaurant, and then left after about 15 or 20 minutes. On our way out the door, one of the employees grabbed the door behind my friend and said, "Excuse me. Would you mind saying a prayer? It's just my family, and we're in a lot of trouble..." His eyes welled with tears and his shoulders sagged low, as he began to tell us about the difficulties he is having providing for his family right now. My friend replied, "Why don't we pray right now." After a brief prayer, the man thanked us and went back to work.

As we anticipate the coming of Christ, we hear much about the story of salvation. The golden thread that seems to hold the story together is that in poverty we find hope. It was the poor Boy born to a simple family who was the Hope of the world. It was the poor shepherds who saw the star and were the first to see God's face. And it was the poor to whom Jesus time and again, reached out to comfort, heal, and strengthen.

Maybe someone you know needs that hope. Maybe you need it yourself. And when we acknowledge that we are not as rich as we think, and are actually, instead, in need, then maybe Christ can be born to us, as well.

With Joyful Hope for You and for all,

Father Tyler

The KofC invites you and your family to pray the Family Prayer, through which families will come together to consecrate themselves under the protection of the Holy Family. In this prayer, we ask for the aid or intercession of the perfect son Jesus Christ, Mary the perfect mother, and Joseph who is a model for every father. Consecrating your family is not a single event. It is choosing a way of life for your family. Through this consecration, each participant is consciously choosing to be a beacon of God's love through His Church. Prayer cards are available in the Narthex.
